This year, the 7th annual KIAF 2008 opens its doors and will attract again art lovers and buyers from all over the world.

DIE GALERIE, packed with a fine selection of MODERN ART, will present excellent paintings by Marc Chagall and André Masson and more highlights by Amedeo Modigliani and Pablo Picasso as well as Art Brut artist Jean Dubuffet.

Another focus will be put on CONTEMPORARY ART with figurative pictures by German artists Franz Hitzler, Eckhard Kremers, Heiner Meyer, Volker Stelzmann and Klaus Zylla – alongside to strong and expressive works by the French star painter Robert Combas, who is already well introduced to the Korean public with large exhibitions in Seoul and worldwide.

Furthermore DIE GALERIE will present bronze sculptures made by the Polish Igor Mitoraj, one of the most successful European sculptors, and the German sculptor Dietrich Klinge. Especially Klinge's large bronze Gordian VII in front of the booth will definitely attract the attention of the visitors at KIAF 2008.
